

Marie Cuddihee

SENIOR MORTGAGE BANKER

"Your confidence is my finest compliment. Success doesn't get much more complicated than finding out what you love to do and being good at it. It takes strength to persevere in an industry that is ever changing, to have tolerance and "keep the faith". My mortgage career since 1998 has been forged by endurance, sincerity, ethics and my genuine concern for clients as people and the Golden Rule or Ethical Code...To treat others the way I wish to be treated."

During the past 15 years I've worked with some of the area's top mortgage lenders and have been privileged to forge trusted relationships with real estate agents, title companies and past and present clients in Missouri and Illinois. The mortgage lending industry has undergone substantial overhauls during that time and it's a challenging task to stay abreast of regulations, guidelines, rules, etc. The aforementioned has allowed me to work side by side with many of the area's top real estate and mortgage professionals and I am grateful for each opportunity and experience that I've been afforded.
