

Sue King

SENIOR MORTGAGE BANKER

As a 20 year veteran of the mortgage industry, I've dedicated my professional life to simplifying the mortgage process for homebuyers and homeowners alike. I started my career at a local mortgage company, Doering Mortgage, in the early 1990's. I focused my time on creating a personalized experience for each customer. By joining F&B Financial Group, I've been fortunate enough to continue that personalized approach. I have extensive experience with buyers in all stages of homeownership and especially enjoy working with first-time homebuyers. Buying or refinancing your home can be a complicated journey. I take pride in guiding you through the complex lending landscape whether that means finding the best product or explaining the ever-changing mortgage process.

I'm a proud, lifelong resident of St. Louis and currently reside in St. Louis Hills. I enjoy exploring everything our city has to offer. I love spending time with my daughters Chrissy, Katie and Laura, golfing with my husband Bryan and chasing my grandson John around Willmore Park.
